The King's Hawaiian® Story

The King's Hawaiian® tradition began in 1950 when Robert Taira opened his first bakery in Hilo, Hawaii. He gained great success with his unique, original-recipe, Hawaiian sweet bread because it was irresistibly soft and fluffy with a touch of sweetness. This bread became known as King's Hawaiian Original Hawaiian Sweet Bread. Robert spread the Aloha to the mainland in 1977 when he built a bakery in Torrance, CA. King's Hawaiian Sweet Rolls and Bread quickly became favorites and soon were distributed to grocery stores nationwide.

In 1988, we opened King's Hawaiian Bakery & Restaurant here, in Torrance. Our menu of Hawaiian local food and American food, and fresh baked goods quickly made King's Hawaiian a South Bay favorite. To meet demand, a second Torrance location was opened in 2002. It is a quick service bakery and café that we are proud to call The Local Place.
